Past, present and future of the city of Barcelona.

The Buenavista Function Rooms are uniquely special. The main rooms are located in the heart of the building and their exceptional design is directly linked to the history of the Antiga Casa. In the rooms a whiff of nostalgia will evoke bygone times, as the whole interior design is inspired by the different rooms of a classic flat in Barcelona's Eixample district. The décor and furnishings are, in contrast, contemporary and modern in style. This balanced combination will bring you back to the present moment without the space you are in ever losing its classic, warm, and sophisticated atmosphere. The rooms are adapted to hold both face-to-face and virtual events with an intimate and personal character. They are versatile, modular and have been equipped with the best technology to achieve maximum connectivity. The perfect combination of past, present and future in a house with a lot of history. Come and experience it with us!

Celebrations and events

These original spaces are adapted for both face-to-face and virtual events with a more intimate and personal character. In them, private celebrations, institutional events, conferences, seminars and other corporate events can be organized with the best equipment and connectivity.

1. El Privé

Exclusiveness & privacy. The Privé is a space located on Floor -1 of the building. Its isolation is ideal for celebrations, meetings, events, lunches, dinners, cocktails and all kinds of corporate events in maximum privacy and comfort. Both El Privé and Espai 1918 are two rooms that transport us to the reserved areas of the original Buenavista restaurant founded in 1918 in this same place. Its architecture and design are set in a bygone era without losing the current and contemporary touch that characterizes it so much. A century ago, these halls witnessed major public and private, cultural and intellectual, political and business events in Barcelona in the twenties. Now, we reopen these rooms with a renewed air and full of history. These two spaces have the peculiarity that they can communicate and/or become one, the Privé 1918.

2. Espai 1918

History and vintage aesthetics. Prestige of a room full of history. Espai 1918 refers to the year of the inauguration of the Antiga Casa Buenavista and it is a room that transports us to its heart, a kind of historical reserve. It is a space located on Floor -1 of the building. Its isolation is ideal for celebrations, meetings, events, lunches, dinners, cocktails and all kinds of corporate events in maximum privacy and comfort. Both Espai 1918 and Privé are two rooms that transport us to the reserved areas of the original Buenavista restaurant founded in 1918 in this same place. Its architecture and design are set in a bygone era without losing the current and contemporary touch that characterizes it so much. A century ago, these halls witnessed major public and private, cultural and intellectual, political and business events in Barcelona in the 1920s. Now, we reopen these rooms with a renewed air and full of history. These two spaces have the particularity that they can communicate and become one, the Privé 1918.

4. La Llar

The Llar (or fire place) is the spirit of a house. Because the name of this space tells us where the fire and warmth of a home are located, that family spirit that invites us to relax and feel at home. Located in the Altell (Plant A of the building) it is an original room in which to celebrate small events such as: anniversaries, private celebrations, artistic, cultural events, exhibitions, training workshops or any type of corporate action that requires of an intimate and original environment.

It is also perfect for cocktails and formal or informal meetings with your collaborators and clients. We could say that it is a small house within the Old Casa Buenavista. Inside the Llar we find El Cercle, a special reserved area for more intimate meetings. Its name is due to the round table, alluding to its shape and also in a circle as a small group of people who meet. The Cercle maintains the exclusive tone of the Llar, although it gives this space a touch of solemnity.
